Reason for your lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress (check all that apply):

- Illness and/or Injury
- Death
- Separation, Divorce, Custody Issues
- Other (please specify)_____

Financial Aid Appeals must include all of the following (incomplete appeals will be denied):

1. The Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal Form (completed in ink, legible and signed in ink).
2. A detailed typed and signed letter from the student which:
 - a. Thoroughly explains the circumstances which prevented satisfactory academic progress in the past and how/why those circumstances affected the student, AND
 - b. Clearly explains how the circumstances have been resolved to ensure satisfactory academic progress in the future. This should include the steps/resources that will be taken to improve academic performance.
3. Documentation to support/verify the circumstances cited in the letter. For example, illness and/or injury can be documented with hospital or insurance records; a death can be documented with an obituary or funeral card/program; divorce can be documented with signed letter from a lawyer or a copy of the divorce decree, etc. Letters must be signed and must contain contact information (the phone number, email address, etc. of the person who wrote and signed the letter). Documentation cannot be from family members, significant others, roommates, etc.
